OLMITZ

A fine little shower Monday night was most welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Seidel are the proud parents of a bouncing boy, born Monday.

Frank Haberman, Sr., was taken to the St. Rose hospital at Great Bend, last Friday.

John Schreffer and Rudolf Hampe and wives were visiting in the Odia vicinity last Sunday.

Joe Kittle of the Odia vicinity went to Wichita last week visiting and looking after some of his business. Mr. Kittle has 80 acres of land near Wichita.

Anton Haberman and Frank Bulig and their wives, of the Odia neighborhood, were here visiting relatives and friends.

Father Huna went to Timken last Friday to officiate at the funeral of Miss Prochaska. Miss Prochaska had come to this country from Austria only a short time ago. She was living with her brother-in-law, Frank Kuera, and family, in Timken, who also immigrated about two years ago. She took suddenly ill and after about three days illness died. A coronor's inquest was held Thursday and she was buried Friday at 10 o'clock a. m. in the Catholic cemetery at Timken. The deceased was 20 years old.

We notice some bills out advertising a Passion Play at the Hiavaty hall next Sunday night. Half of the proceeds are to go to the church.

Gus Weiser of Rush county passed through here last Monday on his way to Great Bend where he took his father for treatment at the St. Rose hospital.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man an unhappy slave. For impure blood and sluggish liver, use Burdock Blood Bitters. On the market 35 years. $1.00 a bottle.

CLAFLIN

From The Clarion

Joe Neimeyer is taking his vacation of fifteen days from his duties as operator at the depot and is spending his time looking after the building of his new home. H. Kilgore is working in his place at the depot.

X. Starzer, father of Mrs. Morris Hualig, died at the Hualig home last Tuesday night from a stroke of paralysis. The funeral was held at St. Peter & Paul Catholic church Friday.

H. M. Starr went to the county seat Saturday night and returned home Monday morning with a copy of the tax rolls.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Scott and Clarece Montgomery, wife and baby, anted to Little River last Sunday to attend a family reunion of the Scott family. The reunion was held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. George Cox, who lives near Little River. Besides the above mentioned there were present George Cox and the five children and Mrs. E. C. Bakon, sister of Mr. Scott.

The new engine and dynamo at the light plant have been installed and are now running. The engine is an Olds and when run with gasoline will develop 100 horse power but does not develop quite so much on solar oil or coal oil, which will be used in the engine. The big dynamo which was installed several months ago is pulled by the new engine, and a smaller one has been installed and will be pulled by the old engine. There is practically no danger now whatever of the town being without lights even for a night, as the two outfits are both separate and complete and in case one goes down the other will be available.

Mrs. Lee Bell and children are visiting Mr. Bell's mother, Mrs. Max Shaffer. Mr. Bell will be here in a few days and they will go to Kansas City where they expect to live, having sold their stock and farm equipment. They are moving on account of Mr. Bell's health.

Chas. Day is here visiting his sister, Mrs. D. A. Banta. Mr. Day lives in Lyons and is foreman of the Lyons Daily News. He was married a short time ago to a young lady of that city.

ELLINWOOD

KOWALSKY-ARBURGER

The marriage of Mr. Anton Kowalsky to Miss Barbara Arburger was solemnized at St. Joseph's Catholic church in this city Wednesday morning of this week in the presence of a few of the relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties. Father Emmerich officiating. After the ceremony a reception was held for the couple at the Kowalsky home on the south side which was largely attended. A big marriage feast was served and a thoroughly good time enjoyed by all.

Mr. Kowalsky is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kowalsky of south of town and one of the industrious and prosperous young farmers of the community whose friends are limited only by the number of his acquaintances. His bride is a sister of Mrs. Mike Schartz and has been making her home with her sister since coming to this country. Both young people are popular with all their acquaintances and with their many friends the Leader joins in extending the best wishes for their continued happiness and prosperity.—Ellinwood Leader.

FATALLY BURNED.

Mrs. Theresa Matzek, an aged woman of this city, living close to the Catholic church, was the victim of a fatal accident on Monday of this week, when in raking and burning leaves and trash from her yard, her skirts became ignited from some sparks and in attempting to put out the same she tripped and fell in a pile of burning trash. Mrs. Matzek was a cripple and before assistance could reach her, all of her clothing was a mass of flames and was burned from her body.

The suffering woman was at once taken to her home and everything possible done to relieve her suffering, but it was evident that her injuries were of a fatal nature, and on Tuesday, Nov. 5, at 12:35 o'clock, her sufferings were mercifully ended and the tired soul peacefully passed to the better world.

Mrs. Matzek had made Ellinwood her home for many years and was well and favorably known by the most of our people. Although a partial cripple and an invalid she was always cheery and had a pleasant word for all she met at all times. Her husband preceded her to the other world some years ago and three children are left to mourn her death. They are Anton Matzek, of Ellinwood, George Matzek of Oklahoma, and a married daughter living in Canada. She was aged 83 years, 11 months and 29 days.

Funeral services were held at St. Joseph's Catholic church in this city this (Thursday) morning at 9 o'clock, and interment made in the cemetery at this place.—Ellinwood Leader.

Rev. and Mrs. Victor Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis were the guests at Sunday dinner at Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Maybach's.

Rob't Garvin of this city has sold his office and insurance business in this city to R. J. McMullen of Ellinwood, who will take possession about January first.—Stafford Republican.
